PRAISE FOR CUBA AND ITS NEIGHBOURS:

“The third chapter, entitled “Exploring Democracies in Venezuela, Bolivia and Ecuador”, may be the book’s strongest contribution to the study of comparative politics.” — Dr. Antonio Carmona Báez, European Review of Latin American and Caribbean Studies

“Finally a book that explains in depth Cuba’s dynamic imperfect democracy and socialist system, while helping us understand its accomplishments.” — Dr. James Cockcroft, award-winning author

“August succeeds in forcing readers to expand their horizons and modify expectations on democracy. He makes a compelling case for Cuban democracy in motion and the fallibility of U.S. centrism, leaving scholars with a new prism in which to conduct future work on political models” — David Grantham, PhD Candidate, Texas Christian University, International Journal of Cuban Studies
