

Arnold August Presents: "Comparing Democracy and Elections in Cuba and Venezuela: The False Dichotomy between Single and Multi-Party Processes."

Political Tendencies of Actors and Systems: Investigation Regarding their Effects on the Over-All Political System

Sponsored by LASA Section: Political Institutions and Processes

Session Organizer: Carlos Augusto A Varetto, Universidad Nacional de San Martin (Argentina) and Universidad Nacional de Córdoba (Argentina)

- Friday, May 23rd | 6:00pm - 7:45pm
Room: LaSalle 5, Palmer House Hilton Hotel
Chicago, Illinois

PRAISE FOR CUBA AND ITS NEIGHBOURS:

"The third chapter, entitled "Exploring Democracies in Venezuela, Bolivia and Ecuador", may be the book's strongest contribution to the study of comparative politics." — Dr. Antonio Carmona Báez, European Review of Latin American and Caribbean Studies

"Finally a book that explains in depth Cuba's dynamic imperfect democracy and socialist system, while helping us understand its accomplishments." — Dr. James Cockcroft, award-winning author

"August succeeds in forcing readers to expand their horizons and modify expectations on democracy. He makes a compelling case for Cuban democracy in motion and the fallibility of U.S. centrism, leaving scholars with a new prism in which to conduct future work on political models" — David Grantham, PhD Candidate, Texas Christian University, International Journal of Cuban Studies

ARNOLD AUGUST has an MA in political science from McGill University. The Montreal-based writer, journalist and lecturer is the author of Democracy in Cuba and the 1997–98 Elections. He has also contributed a chapter entitled "Socialism and Elections" to Azicri and Deal's edited collection Cuban Socialism in a New Century (University Press of Florida).

Cuba and Its Neighbours can be purchased at the Palgrave Macmillan stand

Palgrave Macmillan distributes Zed Books in the U.S.A.

For further information on Arnold and his work, including Table of Contents, book reviews and more praise for the book, visit

www.democracycuba.com